

Telstra Wholesale Facilities Access

General Terms and Conditions for Tower Site Sharing

The following points outline some of the main terms and conditions for Facilities Access to Telstra Telecommunications Sites:

- Customers cannot submit a Site Share Facilities Access Request or Order until they have an executed Facilities Access Agreement or equivalent (FA31/35 or CRA31/35);
- The minimum term for Site Share Facilities Access to Telecommunication Towers and sites is 2 years (maximum term 15 years);
- If a customer wishes to renew its Facilities Access license for Site Share, it should do so in writing to Telstra with a minimum of 12 months and a maximum of 36 months notice;
- A customer must submit a new Study/Order if it wishes to install additional plant or equipment;
- Customers must not assign, share or sublet part or all of its Site Share Access to a third party;
- The customer is responsible for all installation, testing, repair and removal of Radiocommunication equipment installed under the Site Share agreement/licence
- Prior to accessing any Telstra Radiocommunications facility for the purpose of a site inspection or construction, customers and their contractors must follow Telstra Physical Access procedures;
- The customer must ensure that all installation practices and procedures comply with Telstra Technical Specifications and Procedures.

For more detail on General Terms and Conditions relating to Tower Site Share, please refer to the Terms & Conditions section of the Facilities Access Site Share Schedule 31 or 35.